THE INSTITUTE OF CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS OF INDIA

(CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS)

New Delhi-1, the 12th July 1968

No. 1-CA(20)/68—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of Section 30 of the Chartered Accountants Act, 1949 (XXXVIII of 1949), the Council of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India has made the following amendment to the Chartered Accountants Regulations, 1964, the same having been previously published and approved by the Central Government as required under sub-section (3) of the said Section.

In the said Regulations, insert the following new regulation after regulation 12—

"12A. Time limit on entertaining complaint or information.

Save in cases of misconduct involving moral turpitude or in cases instituted by the Central Government, where the Council is satisfied that there would be difficulty in securing proper evidence of the alleged misconduct, or that the member against whom the complaint has been filed would find it difficult to lead evidence to defend himself on account of the time-lag, or that changes have taken place rendering the inquiry procedurally inconvenient or difficult, the Council may refuse to entertain complaints or information in respect of misconduct made more than 10 years after the same was alleged to have been committed."
